

Vorbereitung auf eine Abschiebung

Preparing for deportation

BRING BACK OUR NEIGHBOURS

Against the Saxonian deportation policy

Even if it causes anxiety and stress beta.bbonlink.de/flyer-en-stress , you can prepare yourself for a possible deportation.

The police may come at night, in which case everything has to happen very quickly. This information can help you in the event of an ongoing deportation and, at best, prevent it:

Have the most important things ready: Medication, documents (children's birth certificates, medical documents, passports, etc.) Clarify with a trusted person that you can call them at any time if you are in danger. Write the name and telephone number of this person and your lawyer in a clearly visible place and hang the note next to the door.

If you are deported, this trusted person can also send you things that you were unable to take with you or have forgotten.

Do you know many people who could come to you quickly in case of danger and block your deportation? If so, plan together who you will inform. This person can then pass on the information to everyone else (telephone chain).

Often you will not find enough people to block the deportation. Nevertheless, you can contact individual people so that they come and support you and act as witnesses.

Do you have proof that you or your family should not be deported? Have it ready so that you can show it quickly. For example, medical reports, court judgements, maternity passports, letters from authorities or lawyers.

Keep in regular contact with your lawyer and supporters. Make sure that they have the latest documents and information from you that can help you with a stay, e.g. employment contract, medical documents, etc.

If you like, sign the templates beta.bbonlink.de/page-en-forms from this emergency kit and give them to someone you trust. They can then react quickly in the event of deportation if you run out of time.

There is further information for supporters beta.bbonlink.de/kit-en-support , where you can find contacts beta.bbonlink.de/page- en-contacts to authorities and courts or politicians. They can call supporters for you if you are deported.

Talk to family, friends or acquaintances about how they can and want to support you and show them the information.

Deportations often happen secretly. Most people in Saxony know nothing about it.

You can publicise your impending deportation with the help of supporters. Sometimes this can also prevent an ongoing deportation. But it is also important that more people understand how bad deportations are.

Here are tips for protesting and publicising deportations beta.bbonlink.de/page-en-publicity .

Think about what information you want to share publicly and discuss this with your supporters:

For example, are they allowed to publish this information?

- How exactly did the deportation take place?
- What was your life like in Germany? (Work, school, voluntary work, health, criminal offences...)
- Why did you have to flee? What are you afraid of when you return?
- Do you want to make your name or photos, letters, videos of yourself public or would you rather not?
